MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 3, 1859.

A town clock holds an eminent station of authority. It is elevated, like a judge on his bench above the crowd, so that all may see it Jan. -it is constantly on duty proclaiming the time and never closing its eyes even at night, if it be illuminated—it strikes the hours decisively, and loud enough to be heard by all, and says to the army of little clocks and watches Feb beneath it-"none of your nonsense-that's the time of day."

at 3 o'clock to shut their doors-and to the people on Sabbath to go to Church in time-it tells the housekeeper when to get dinner, and the man of business when to go home—it sends the children to school with fatherly even regulates the pedagogues-it orders the servants out of the streets at the appointed time. It is the only aristocrat that republicans can tolerate. Every thing submits to its to strike till doomsday.

How much time may be wasted in a city by utes lost to each would amount in the aggregate to day and weeks-perhaps months-and would cost more than a town clock.

A meeting of gentlemen in this city was de-back to his counting house without eating, if William H. Fowle, W. T. Harper, and George H. his meals were not on the table when he came in at the appointed time.

A gentleman ran home at 2 o'clock-his hour for dinner-and requested his wife to hasten the meal, as he had an appointment at 3 o'clock—but her time differed from his, and the dinner could not be got ready-so he had to run back fatigued and hungry to his engagement.

by Louis the 14th for his dilatoriness in attending councils-resolved to be more punctual at 12 o'clock next day-but his bad habits prevailed, and the clock in the palace hall struck as he was entering-at which his wrath was so great that he raised his cane and broke the clock's face. The king when informed of it asked him how he dared to strike his clock-to which the Admiral replied. "Please you majesty the clock struck first."-Norfolk Herald.

men of Nashville, a petition was read from a Hoosier named Morgan, who wrote a letter "all the way from Indiana," asking the City Council to loan him one thousand dollarsas he is in a strait, don't know he is to manage to make both ends meet, and that his wife and daughter are both clamorous for a new dress by the first of the year. QUEEN BLUNDER.

Some three months ago, among a crowd of prisoners sentenced to the Chicago House of Correction, were two men, one of whom was sent up for two days, and his yoke-fellow for ninety days. By some inadvertence, these two got mixed up, and the two days' convict was made to serve out the other man's term of three months, at stone breaking. The victim of this mistake has sued for damages to the amount of $10,000.

YEAR .- The RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD, for restoring Hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. Volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world, and from the most intelligent, to prove that it is a perfect RESTORATIVE; but read the circular and you cannot doubt. Read, also, the following:
The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy. Court for Fairfax County is held on the third heretofore known, has been those abominable articles are being fast dispensed with: but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often haposed upon by Hair Tonies of different kinds. To all such persons, we carnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in WOOD'S RESTORATIVE there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the timiest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was capilly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is, also, without doubt, one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest such; to all the ills that

I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours.— Being fully convinced that your RESTORATIVE is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must
